POLICY CONSIDERATIONS

The application complies with Policies CS2 and CS19 of the Core Strategy and saved Policies H5 and H8 of the UDP; the application also complies with the Householder Development SPD.

DESIGN, ACCESS AND CRIME PREVENTION

The design of the proposal is acceptable. The extension would have a pitched roof like the existing dwelling and would be set back by over 1 metre at first floor level. Therefore, the extension complies with para 7.2 of the Householder Development SPD.

Overall, the design of the scheme is acceptable. The application raises no crime or anti-social behaviour issues.

RESIDENTIAL AMENITY

The proposal would not harm the amenity of neighbouring properties.

In relation to 4, there would be no harm to amenity as the extension would be on the opposite side of the property.

In relation to 9, there would be no harm to amenity of 9 as the two storey side extension would not contain any side windows and would be partly obscured by the presence of tall trees near the boundary. Whilst there may be a minor impact in relation to outlook and loss of light, there would be a small privacy benefit as the existing first floor side window would be removed. Overall, the effect of the development would be neutral on the amenity of 9.

The extension complies with the Householder Development SPD. Overall, the proposal will not cause harm to the amenity of neighbouring properties.

CONCLUSION

The proposal is acceptable in design and would not harm the amenity of neighbouring properties, The application complies with local planning policies and is recommended for approval.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Planning Permission be granted subject to the following condition(s):-

- 1) The development must be begun not later than the expiration of three years beginning with the date of this permission.

Reason: In order to comply with the requirements of Section 91 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).

- 2) The development hereby permitted shall be carried out in accordance with the approved plans and documents listed in Schedule 1.

Reason: For the avoidance of doubt.
