

A photograph of a small, light-colored wooden shed with a gabled roof and a small porch. The shed is situated in a yard with green grass. A hand-drawn path, consisting of two parallel lines with cross-ticks, leads from the bottom left towards the shed. The path is drawn on the grass. In the background, there are trees and a brick house. The text "THIS IS WHAT I WOULD LIKE IT BE LIKE" is written in large, bold, black letters across the bottom of the image.
