OWNERSHIP CERTIFICATE

(Complete either Certificate A or Certificate B - if neither apply, contact the Planning Services Division)

CERTIFICATE A: This should be completed if you are the sole owner of the whole of the land which is the subject of the application (and if no part of it is an agricultural holding).

CERTIFICATE B: This should be completed if someone else is the owner or part owner of the land (and if no part of it is an agricultural holding).
NB. Certificate B should also be completed if any proposed building works will encroach onto someone elses land (eg. part of the foundations/gutters).

NOTICE: This should be completed and delivered to the owner or part owner of the land if you have completed Certificate B.
NB. It is a punishable offence to knowingly or recklessly complete a false or misleading Certificate.

In this case "owner" means a person having a freehold interest or a leasehold interest, the unexpired term of which is not less than 7 years.
