Good morning Mark

The design team are working through the comments provided last week. As part of this, a revised layout has been prepared. Please see attached. Please could you reconsult highways on this layout? Additional adoptable area has been added in response to comments regarding bin servicing/tracking and fire safety. An additional unit has also been added (Plot 70), in response to landscape comments regarding dead space. As a result, please can we agree to amend the description of development to reference the erection of 82 dwellings.

The team are in the process of preparing a response to the other comments on the TA. Once highways have provided comments on the amended layout, we will update the full pack of drawings to reflect the latest layout.

Kind regards

Harry
