Hi Clare,

Yes, that's no problem.

I formally agree to the EOT.

Kind Regards,

Hi Clare,

The architect has confirmed that the channel has been intentionally removed from the plans.

Hope this helps.

Katie

Hi Katie

Please see comments from Dorothy. Just one query taken from Dorothy's comments - Note 3 on the sections B&D plan (ref 9-038_103revG) is now missing – this note was in relation to the channel behind the feeder pillar and was previously specifying this was galvanised with a black coloured finish. The '3' notation is still on the plans – just no longer described in the key. Has the use of this channel been omitted – if so, this is acceptable.

Can you just confirm if Dorothy has read the plans correctly and that the notation 3 galvanised channel is now omitted?

Thanks

Regards

Clare
