Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Find out more about biodiversity net gain, and access digital tools from our partners that can help determine if you are exempt, or produce the biodiversity metric information required.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 \(as amended\)) would apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

You can use our partner's free online tool to determine if you are exempt and to produce detailed reasons

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:

Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold)

What best describes the size of your site?:

Under 25 square metres

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:

There is no distinguishable habitat on-site that would be lost

Note: Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.

Details of the pre-application advice received

The principle of a C2 Use care home as submitted is an acceptable use within a primarily residential area and the level of car-parking is acceptable for the particular use and the numbers of carers specified. The agent has noted that the existing garage could be utilised for bin storage as it is underused at present which would reduce significant visual and residential impacts of outside bin storage. The lack of private outside garden space would impact on the residential amenities of any children residing at the premises to a significant degree and would conflict with planning policies. It is considered that if adults were living there the residential amenity impacts due to the lack of private garden space would be acceptable. C2 Use as specified with the numbers of staff as noted would be acceptable and comply with planning policies with regards to adult residing there but would conflict with planning policy if the occupiers living at the property were children for the reasons specified.

A full planning application would be required, and neighbours would be notified of the planning application proposal together with the Parish Council. In the event that 5 objections were received from different individuals any planning application would need to go before Planning Committee if the application was being recommended for approval. The final decision would be made by the Planning Committee in such case.

Planning Law requires the submission of certain information with a planning application dependent upon its type, scale and location. Knowsley Council's local validation checklist also advises on the drawings and documents required to be submitted with any future planning application and it can be found here.

In the event that a planning application for a change of use from C3 residential dwelling house to C2 child and adult care home for persons with complex and trauma related issues, and with 2 carers working at the property per shift it would be advisable to submit a Planning Statement alongside the planning application forms and drawings. The Planning Statement should explain how the proposal would meet planning policy, and how the property would be managed plus details of shift patterns, all persons likely to visit the premises, the residents of the property and any other relevant supporting information. You should assess the full planning application proposal against the validation checklist to ensure that all of the required information is submitted with your application. This will avoid unnecessary delays.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
