Good morning Maxine,

I understand you are our case officer for our application for a new substation so I wanted to introduce myself and explain that as we need to secure permission for the substation in order for our client to proceed to occupy the unit we would be really grateful if this could be processed as soon as the consultation period expires assuming no objections.

To this end if there is anything further you require from us please let me know and I will get this to you as a priority.

Best wishes,

Miranda
